Is a lack of cash flow limiting your growth?

Cash flow means everything to a growing business.

Whether meeting payroll or funding product development, an adequate supply of cash is vital for daily business and long-term growth.

As businesses move into different stages of growth, they are often faced with inadequate cash flow to cover expenses. Prior funding is exhausted. Demand is seasonal. Sales are unpredictable. Collecting money from customers is increasingly difficult.

Whatever your reason for a lack of cash flow, Hamilton offers a simple, straightforward solution that will enable you to focus your time and resources on growing your business.

Hamilton's solution is simple.

Accounts receivable are a business's strongest source of cash flow. But if left unmanaged, the money tied up in unpaid accounts receivable could limit a business's full potential.

Hamilton helps businesses improve cash flow by converting accounts receivable into working capital in a more timely and efficient manner. Through their factoring programs, Hamilton will purchase your unpaid receivables so you have capital when you need it rather than when your customer decides to pay.

Assume your company has already sold its product or service to your customer. The customer has a solid credit and payment history, but tying up capital while waiting for their payment is not an option as you have immediate capital obligations to meet. Rather than waiting, you can factor the invoice with Hamilton, and receive a cash advance for the invoice within 24 hours. By utilizing Hamilton's factoring program, you get the capital you need when you need it.

With an accommodating structure and flexible requirements, Hamilton's financing programs offer businesses a fresh, smart approach to managing cash flow.

In providing businesses with a sound financial product, Hamilton attempts to encourage great customer relationships between their clients and their clients' customers. Hamilton goes to great lengths to leave the management of customer relationships with you...where it belongs.
